Alcester 'A' 14 Camp Hill 2nd XV 38

Alcester's final "regular" game of the season ended in defeat against a well organised Camp Hill second string, whose 1st XV operate three levels higher than Alcester.

The Kings Coughton men used the full extent of their 26 man squad to ensure everyone got a game on a bright and warm afternoon, but the changes disrupted Alcester somewhat and the visitors upped a gear in the second half to take the game away from their hosts, with four unanswered scores.
