Saturday 2nd January 2010

Midlands Division Four West South

Rugby Welsh vs Alcester

For the second time in three weeks, Alcester's visit to Welsh's Alwyn Road ground, fell victim to the frost ridden ground and they will try again for a third time at a date still to be confirmed. At the half way stage of the season Alcester are mid table having won and lost half of their eight league games so far, which at the start of the season the newly promoted side would probably have taken.

Weather permitting they visit basement side Birmingham Exiles next Saturday for the resumption of league activity and where they will be hoping to complete the league double over their fellow newly promoted side, that they overcame at Kings Coughton in the return fixture earlier in the season.

Alcester 2nd XV are also back in league action playing host to Coventry side Pinley, again with a 2.15pm kick off at King's Coughton/
