

Saturday 8th December 2007

With both opponents gained from the fixture pool crying off in midweek, Alcester used the opportunity to hold a squad training session ahead of next week's crucial "must win" visit to basement boys Tenbury Wells for their final league game of the year, a fixture that concludes the first half of this seasons campaign. Kick off in rural Worcestershire is 2.15pm.