

Keresley 2nd XV 0 Alcester 2nd XV 21

Alcester seconds made it an excellent weekend for the King's Coughton club with a rare win on the road.

They were helped by being able to field their strongest side for a number of weeks, with the combination of experience and youth, too much for their hosts.

Whilst the game was competitive throughout, Alcester always had the upper hand. They led 6-0 at the break, thanks to two Rich Smith penalties, but turned their domination into tries in the second half.

Veteran no 8 Pete Goddard helped himself to a brace of scores, and thought he had registered his hat trick only to see his third attempt disallowed by the referee. Lock Chris Pierson did score another try for Alcester.

In an all round great team effort, the performances of two of the younger players in the team, fly half Ollie Braley and flanker Steve Green stood out,
