

After a shaky start Alcester went in 10 - 3 down at half time after all they could muster was a drop goal from 2nd team debutant Dave Ballard. In the second half things were different, with the wind, sun and slop with them, Alcester dominated large parts of the game with try's coming from Dave Ballard and Rupert Daffern, the second of which was converted by Darren Gwyllam. Stourport put up a valiant defence and scored a late unconverted try to equal the scores at 15 all.

Alcester Skipper Pete Goddard singled out Paul Taylor at Scrum half as his man of the match for a talisman game. The Next Match will be the first league game at home against Atherstone KO at Kings Coughton is 15.00hrs
