

Alcester 2nd XV 6 Old Yardleians 36

A youthful Alcester seconds side slipped to a second against opponents who's 1st XV operate a league higher than their own.

They were in touch at the break, trailing only by 10-6, with the Alcester scores both coming from penalties from the boot of James Randall, one of which was a magnificent conversion from just inside the Old Yards half.

In the second half the visitors took over, running in four unanswered tries, and converting three.

Alcester hooker Steve Wade looks set for a period on the side lines after sustaining damage to his ribs during the game.
